

I just bought a new cellular phone from a different service and had to change my phone number. This costs more money and time to change my business phone number on all my business cards. I would like the cellular service to have portability like our home phones.